For Jose Solis / Creative Art Services, Portland, Oregon.

Michael Mcdermott
Studio Mcdermott, Portland, Oregon.

Jose Solis is a master artist. Jose understands film and how props look when photographed. Jose brings attention to detail to a whole new level. Studio McDermott highly recommends Jose for his creativity, and passion for perfection, as well as his "on time", "on budget" work ethic. We are delighted with how well our film turned out because of Jose's fine work.

Jose Solis and his team are remarkably creative and resourceful.
I've used Jose to create monster sets with enormous agency budgets and on self-funded shoe string budgets. He is an excellent listener and problem solver and Creative Art Services wide range of skills enables them to execute the any idea I've ever thrown at them.
I've worked with Jose for twenty years now on projects ranging from corporate industrials, high end commercials and even my new feature film. Jose's cooperative attitude and the can-do approach of his team are welcome relief when a deadline is breathing down your neck.
I absolutely, enthusiastically recommend Jose Solis and Creative Art Services - he will work for you and with you -- not for his reel

Jose Solis's company, Creative Art Services, provides high quality signage and artwork and helps you to create just the right look for every project. Jose knows how to add just the right details to make an exceptional project great by working with you!

Michael P. St Andrews Church, Portland, Oregon

Jose Solis is a dedicated master artist who always pours his heart and soul into every project he undertakes. I recently commissioned Jose to create a piece of art for a national liturgical conference. The piece came in on time, under budget and was the center piece of the conference and received rave reviews. I highly recommend this gifted and talented artist.

I have had work done by Jose' for many years, both business projects and personal as well. His art is outstanding as is his sense of just what you have in mind. He has done beautiful murals for the food room at both St.Vincent de Paul in Salem and in Portland. He produced realistic marble effects on pillars and on our walls when we were in business downtown. Every project is exactly what we have wanted and so colorful and we have always gotten many compliments on all of them.

Dan F. Old Mission San Miguel
Kennewick, WA . 4/28/2011

We commissioned Jose to create a large San Damiano Cross to be placed outside Old Mission San Miguel in California as a memorial to our son. In our view, Jose's work was absolutely outstanding - a brilliant piece of work, beautifully executed and a perfect and lasting tribute to our son. In addition, working with Jose was a great pleasure and an honor. He is not only an incredibly talented artist, he is a truly fine human being.

Project: Answers in Genesis Video Conference show,
Hello Jose', I just want to thank you for all of the work you did to present a professional presentation to the Answers in Genesis show. I really respect you as an artist and I only wish that I could work with you again sometime. I'm sure that I would learn a lot from you, being the well rounded talent you are, both with your art and your being. They AIG, have e-mailed us and said everyone loved the sets

Thank you once again, I hope our paths cross in the near future. Your friend, Jeff Crowe

Kevin S. Cummins West, Inc.

I hired Jose Solis for two separate week long projects. He was hired to create, design and paint back ground scenes for museum quality scenic dioramas. The diorama scenes were 15' high around three sides of a large area.

Mr. Solis creations were absolutely excellent. His work is of the highest quality, and his work ethic is to be admired. Additionally, he was a joy to work with on these projects. His collaboration and contribution proved to be vital in completing the projects and achieving the desired artistic outcome.

Steve H. Circum Pacific Properties.

Our property management company recently had Jose improve some existing signs and produce large new signs for a second property. If you are having a difficult time finding a professional sign maker that designs and hand paints quality signs, look no further. Jose provided helpful proofs beforehand via email, a beautiful finished product and all for a reasonable rate. I look forward to working with him again.

I received excellent service from Jose Solis he created a vinyl banner for us which has held up very well over the past year since we received it. Jose even suggested an improved design from what we had used before to make our banner more readable. He hand-delivered it to my office which was very nice! The price was reasonable as well.
